News From Chicago—A San Francisco Murder—An Indiana Hanging, &c., &c.

Why Not Let the Woman Alone?

NEW YORK, November 11.—Miss Rose Elizabeth Cleveland writes to the Post this evening, as follows: "Will you kindly permit me through your columns to reply to the many who still inquire concerning my real present relation to the little Chicago magazine, that all connection with this paper was irrevocably severed more than a month ago; also, that all the reported interviews with the publisher of that paper have contained so little truth in what they have said of me as to deserve only Tennyson's stigma of 'The worst of lies.' These falsehoods would be as harmless as they are ridiculous except for the sad fact that there are widely circulated newspapers which receive and scatter them to many readers, among whom some, feeling kindly towards me, may sorrowfully believe them until they are denied."

[This dogging of a lady after her retirement from a public position is outrageous, and the news scavengers who do it merit public scorn. It is some of the same crowd who spied on the President on his wedding-trip.]

No Turbulent Crowds in Chicago.

CHICAGO, November 12.—The general situation at the Union stock-yards shows no essential change beyond the fact that applicants for work were more numerous than on any previous day, and many of the old men were included in the list, having apparently concluded to accept the protection afforded them and secure their former places while there is still opportunity. Troops guarded all the main approaches this morning, but encountered no turbulent crowds.

Back to Ten Hours.

CHICAGO, November 12.—The Packing-town strike has not yet been officially declared off, though the opinion is general that it is now only a question of arranging details, and that the men will certainly go back on the ten-hour basis. Everything was quiet this morning. New men were applying for work and being taken on.

Lake Disaster.

CHICAGO, November 12.—About 4.30 o'clock this morning the schooner Mary B. Ludwick, laden with sand, went ashore off Lincoln Park and went to pieces before assistance reached her. Her crew escaped safely. The Ludwick was of 45 tons burden, and valued at $1,200.

Charleston's Charity.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, November 12.—The News has received from Charleston, through the News and Courier of that place, a box of clothing and other articles and some money for the Sabine Pass sufferers. A letter accompanies the donation saying that the offering is from hearts grateful for the mercies granted the people of Charleston during their late vicissitudes.

A Sad Honeymoon.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., November 12.—W. T. Lester, who had just returned from Chicago, where he went on his wedding trip, was arrested at the Union depot yesterday for forgery. He admitted his guilt. The grief of his young wife when she realized his shame was pitiful. He had forged the name of his father to a check for $45, and had also forged several other checks, using the money for wedding expenses.

The Norfolk Bank.

NORFOLK, VA., November 12.—In the trial of John B. Whitehead to-day the prisoner was placed on the witness-stand in his own behalf. Up to the time of the collapse of the Exchange National Bank he did not know its real condition, and was prostrated when told of it by Bain. The case will be given to the jury to-morrow.

Desperado Killed.

Inviting the Liberals to Reunite. The Egyptian Question.

CONSTANTINOPLE, November 11.—The pending negotiations between England and Turkey relative to the Egyptian question will, it is now stated, be completed forthwith. PARIS, Nov. 11.—The French press continues to discuss Lord Salisbury's declaration about the British occupation of Egypt, but all the comments are made in a very moderate tone. The Journal des Debats says that cordial negotiations are proceeding between England and France in the direction of a friendly settlement respecting Egypt.

Gladstone's Letter.

LONDON, November 11.—Mr. Gladstone publishes a letter inviting the Liberals to reunite. He says: "After reading the Marquis of Salisbury's speech, it seems to me that we have arrived at the testing situation for all Liberals really desiring Liberal union. We have no right to demand when the Government have produced their plans that they shall pursue an altered course upon them, but we have already tolerated a long delay in the production of those plans. The beginning of new delays in February will virtually be making indefinite the production of the plans. I am unable to understand how anybody promoting or inviting such delay can be said to desire the reunion of the Liberal party."

Demanding a Reduction in Rents.

DUBLIN, November 11.—At Londonderry to-day a meeting of substantial farmers, not connected with the National League, adopted a resolution demanding a reduction of 40 per cent. in rents. If the landlords refuse to grant the reduction demanded the tenants will deposit the money in bank to the landlords' credit. As an alternative the tenants are willing to buy their holdings at fifteen years' purchase. The Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland is one of the landlords interested.

Floods in Italy.

ROME, November 11.—The rivers Po and Adige have overflowed and submerged the country along their courses. At Albenga, the high waters of the Po dislodged the railway bridge while a train was crossing, precipitating the cars and passengers into the river. Five persons were drowned. The town of Comosubo is submerged. The railway service between Nice and Genoa is interrupted.

Father Grisar's Proposed History.

ROME, November 11.—The Pope has placed all the literary treasures of the Vatican library at the disposal of Father Grisar, of Innsbruck University, who proposes writing a history of Rome. The object of Father Grisar will be to confute the assertions contained in the Gregorovius History regarding the influence and temporal power exercised by the Pope in the middle ages.

The Nobby Noblemen.

LONDON, November 12.—The St. James Gazette declares that the Earl of Iddesleigh, Foreign Secretary, had high words with Baron DeStaal, Russian Ambassador, at their last interview, and announces that Baron DeStaal is about to depart from England on a prolonged leave of absence.

The Evicted Irish.

DUBLIN, November 12.—The police have been instructed to report the number of tenant farmers in each district throughout Ireland that have been evicted, their ability to pay rent, and whether the National League influences those able to pay, etc.

The wheat market has ruled very steady but quiet, and the range is small. The early feeling was firmer on account of better cable and on report that exporters were buying more freely, but advance was met by very few. Eastern markets were dull. The trade centered mostly in hands of the local crowd. Receipts for to-morrow show a decided increase and this caused a weak tone toward the close. We consider market a sale on the advances.

Corn was also quiet and declined quite steadily, closing at inside. Receipts are not specially heavy, but prospects of close of navigation caused dull feeling. Provisions were a trifle stronger on unsettled condition of affairs at stock yards.

New York Stock Market.

REVIEW.

NEW YORK, November 12.—Prices opened dull and steady. The decline here yesterday apparently having had but little effect on foreign markets, which came firmer at about an equivalent to our quotations of last evening. After the opening the amount of dealings fell off very considerably, the room traders and local operators who hammered down prices yesterday, having probably sold as much as they cared to, and were waiting for some new feature before venturing further.

The market remained stubbornly strong during the afternoon and showed evidence of some substantial buying, the trunk lines holding their own in spite of all. On the whole it has been a quiet day and without any new feature, and that values should have held their own under such pressure is to us a satisfactory indication of their stability. Market closed firm. Money, 6 per cent.
